*Introducing
The 1968 Acorn*

Foreword

As you look through this book and recall all the moments of work and fun and laughter of this school year, we sincerely hope that your greatest expectations will be fulfilled --and each time that you close it, we trust that your fond memories will have been made a bit more indelible--and that they may live as long as you shall live.

Dedication

This 1968 edition of THE ACORN is fondly dedicated to Mrs. Charles Martin, who has spent several years of her teaching career serving our school and community. She has won the respect of all students through her sense of humor, her willingness always to stop and listen to each student's problems, and her command of and devotion to the principles of the teaching profession.

From The Grade School

This has something to do with eighth grade science!!!

They all want to be first when in the first grade.

Out of the arms of Mrs. Moore into the arms of "Morpheus."

Do they look like they have had to stay in for not "Keepin' Up" in geography?

How first graders look when they are having their pictures made.

Aspiring to become fourth graders.

Fifth grade just before school is out.

Scientists of tomorrow.
